THE SUPHEME Court of the United States is hopelessly behind with its business. At the opening of the court this week there were 209 cases 6, Maine is doubtful ground, Neon the calendar, being an increase of about twenty since the last adjournment. It will be years before all are disposed of.

THE SULTAN has again been playing it sharp on the great powers. He cause for alarm. All the party has told them that he had surrendered Duleigno to the Montenegrins, and the these tening fleets were withdrawn, glad to get out an exceedingly discount of the more transpired to do is to fight with earnestness and determination, and that it seems discount in the lindiana affair has only spurred the democracy up to the seriousness of the work before them, and the lindiana affair has only spurred the democracy up to the seriousness of the work before them, and that it seems discount in the lindiana affair has only spurred the democracy up to the seriousness of the work before them, agreeable fix. It now transpires seriousness of the work before them, that the cession was not made, and and made victory in November the powers will again counsel to. doubly sure.

GARIBALDI SAYS the Italian army in entirely too large, and he wants it cut down to 100,000 men, which would result in a saving to the country of $160,000 a day, to say nothing of the wealth the soldiers would produce were they turned out of the army and thrown upon their own resources. The old general expects the present ministry and Parliament to do noth-

In this country, on October 1st, says a dispatch to the HERALD, there was in gold and silver coin $519,680,-388, or about $10 for every man, woman and child in the republic. In looking over our bank book the conviction is forced up n us that upon the date mentioned, something over a million men, women and children hadn't their share. Poor

THAT FOURTEEN year old lad who stole $50,000 from a box in the New York postoffice, had evidently read the history of courts and criminal slingers law in this country. The ordinary lad of his age, who knew nothing of trials, would have stolen a few peanuts or apples from a corner stand, nuts or apples from a corner stand, orratio national committee and two and gone to jail for a year or two; but of its ex chairmen. To their boner the young New Yorker stole enough he it said, the democrats were the to keep him out of prison and make him loved and respected in the comeent.
